Friends

For many Grange members the Grange is about friendship and the opportunity to meet and spend time with a variety of interesting people.

Parents' night out activities

Family

The family and the community are the foundations of the Grange. The Grange serves as a safe family-friendly place to spend time.

Activities

Having fun is always an important part of any activity or task. The Grange is an organization that understands the meaning of fun, offering a variety of creative and recreational activities for you and your family. The Grange members have sponsored, co-sponsored or volunteered at community events including Golden Years, Quilt Show, Car Classic, Circus, Antique Fair, Poker Night, Parent's Night Out, and Lighted Christmas Parade with free chili feed and bonfire.
